PSALM 23

Adonai is my shepherd, I shall not want.

You make me lie down in green pastures,

You lead me beside the still waters. You restore my soul.

You lead me in right paths for the sake of Your name.

Even when I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,

I shall fear no evil, for You are with me;

With rod and staff, You comfort me;

You have set a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

You have annointed my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life.

And I shall dwell in the house of G-d forever.

Our thoughts turn to those who have departed this earth; our own loved ones, those whom our friends and neighbors have lost, the martyrs of our people whose graves are unmarked, and those of every race and nation whose lives have been a blessing to humanity. As we remember them, let us meditate on the meaning of love and loss, of life and death.
